We have given out 53 backpacks this week at our School Store. Thank you to everyone who donated supplies or money. We still have 7 full backpacks left and some various supplies. If you want one for your family or know someone in need they will be in Room 2. A very special thank you to Jim and Zenna Hall for organizing and running the store, and the other volunteers who helped out.

"Our Everyday Acts Of Worship"

*Everything we do
Is an act of worship
That brings pleasure and delight
When it's done for God,
It touches His heart
And is our God-given purpose in life
For God created
Everything that exists
For His glory and His pleasure
And we, His children,
Have so much worth,
More valuable than priceless treasure*

"Close The Barn Door Before It Is Too Late!"

"It's too late to close the barn door after the horses are out!" I know some of you have heard the foregoing expression, right?

Well, what is true of barn doors is also true of praying! There are many times when we wait too late to begin praying! For example, when we are enjoying good health it would be good for us to be praying rather than waiting until we are attacked by some disease or accident, right? Let's see how this principle works in present time!

After a teen has made some bad decisions that will scar their lives forever, it is a bit too late to begin a season of prayer! Those prayers should begin as that infant is anticipated so those poor decisions will never become a reality! To avoid a lifetime of pain, prayer should precede the "I do's" of a wedding by months! Before we sign a contract for employment we should have already talked to God about our decision. The list could go on and on as to "praying in advance"!

As a church in transition, we should be praying daily for our elders as they ponder many decisions, but none greater than that brother who will become a prominent part of our spiritual formation! I learned a long, long time ago the truth of a church taking on the personality of the one in the pulpit! This makes such a decision even more Important, right?

Within minutes of being told this transition was going to occur, I was in prayer for our elders and the great responsibility that now rests on their hearts! I assure them I will continue daily in prayer as they ponder those areas of ministry that demand great care and I will do whatever I am asked to do during this transition period. I hope each of us will make this same commitment!

Love you all, Bill

Prayer Requests

And pray in the Spirit on all occasions with all kinds of prayers and requests. With this in mind, be alert and always keep on praying for all the Lord's people.

~ Ephesians 6:18 NIV

John 15:12-17

"This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. Greater love has no one than this, that someone lay down his life for his friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. No longer do I call you servants, for the servant does not know what his master is doing; but I have called you friends, for all that I have heard from my Father I have made known to you. You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you that you should go and bear fruit and that your fruit should abide, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name, he may give it to you. These things I command you, so that you will love one another.
