Especially to ... the Household of Faith

by Doug Kashorek

Growing up, I lived near my extended family that hunted, canned, and played together. We planted and harvested an acre garden, extracted honey, and brought in hay. Grandpa cut our hair, and dad was everyone's plumber. The medical opinion of my aunt who was a nurse was worth more than any doctor's. Grandma always had hot, homemade bread and strawberry jam, and for every event someone baked a cake.

This formed my understanding of the church as a body and how it functions as a spiritual family. It's also the foundation for how I view my ministry wherever God has put me. It was true in Plattsburgh, and I was happy to find that same spirit alive in 36th Street as well. The 1974 song, "God's Family," captures this well:

We're part of the family that's been born again; Part of the family whose love knows no end; For Jesus has saved us, and made us His own, Now we're part of the family that's on its way home.

And sometimes we laugh together, sometimes we cry; Sometimes we share together, heartaches and sighs; Sometimes we dream together of how it will be When we all get to Heaven, God's family.

This summer is busy with wedding showers and ceremonies, a funeral, and birthdays. We've got a Summer Series and an ongoing VBS. Our foyer has a centennial store and many goodies for the kids. Just this past week we had Monday Leaders and Thursday Centennial Committee meetings, and a Friday farewell dinner and a Saturday Widows Walk cookout. And behind the scenes, plans to repair the roof and an AC unit and to install our electronic sign are underway.

What's best about 36th Street, though, is folks mingling about a half hour before and after classes and worship services, during events in the multi-purpose room, or in our parking lot. There's a spirit of love among us as we encounter each other at a store or restaurant or come by the building throughout the week. We send cards, call to encourage, and pray for one another. That's God's family!

- Have you ordered your shirt or hat yet to commemorate our centennial celebration? Forms are available in the foyer. Orders and money must be turned in to Doug Kashorek by July 31st. Make checks payable to: 36th Street Church of Christ.
- July 24—There will be an afternoon wedding shower for Angie Newberry in the MPR at 2:00 pm. She and Doug are registered at Walmart and Amazon.

Kids' Corner

Service Station

In Genesis 45, what was Joseph’s big reveal?
That he too ...

- A. owned a similar cup
- B. had lived through a famine
- C. knew slavery firsthand
- D. was their brother

Tell the correct answer to Richard & Marilyn Kellar for a prize (and wish them a happy anniversary this week)!

Items needed for the pantry this week:

Canned Milk

You can drop items off in Room 2 or place in the service station bin in the foyer. Thank you!

*“Do not neglect to do good and to share what you have, for such sacrifices are pleasing to God.”
Hebrews 13:16*

Hey KIDS , Parents, & Grandparents!! There are books for you to take in the “Kids’ Library” in the foyer! Help yourself!
And ... there is a new packet for school-age or younger children on the first Sunday of every month.

July: GOD BLESS AMERICA. Enjoy!
