

A Thought From Mark...

Consider what A.W Tozer had to say about redemption: "If man had his way, the plan of redemption would be an endless and bloody conflict. In reality, salvation was bought not by Jesus' fist, but by His nailpierced hands; not by muscle but by love; not by vengeance but by forgiveness; not by force but by sacrifice. Jesus Christ our Lord surrendered in order that He might win; He destroyed His enemies by dying for them and conquered death by allowing death to conquer Him."

I think he is right. If we tried to do what God did, we would have made a mess of it through and through, and it probably would have been a bloody mess. Never would we have thought of doing what God did. To die, so that others might live? To submit, in order to be lifted up? Who would have thought of it, besides our infinitely wise God?

I often hear the trait of "thinking outside of the box" praised in our day and age. But who ever thought further outside of the box than the God who sent His Son to die for people trapped in sin? Who imagined the possibility of God becoming flesh? Of God dying? Of a Roman cross becoming a symbol of eternal love? Only our God!

As you worship Him today, remember just who it is we sing to, and remember just what it is He has done. By so doing you will be able to render worship in spirit and in truth.

- Mark Mason

"And if you call on him as Father who judges impartially according to each one's deeds, conduct yourselves with fear throughout the time of your exile, knowing that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your forefathers, not with perishable things such as silver or gold, but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without blemish or spot.

He was foreknown before the foundation of the world but was made manifest in the last times for the sake of you who through him are believers in God, who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God."

(1 Peter 1:17-21, today's sermon text)

CHRIST: MESSIAH WITH A MISSION

"The saying is trustworthy and deserving of full acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am the foremost." (1 Timothy 1:15)

Have you ever been chosen for a special task? Perhaps you were picked to coach a little league team. Maybe the Bible class leader asked you to teach in their absence on an upcoming Sunday. The right person needs to be picked for the job and with being chosen comes responsibility. Jesus Christ accepted the assignment to be our Savior.

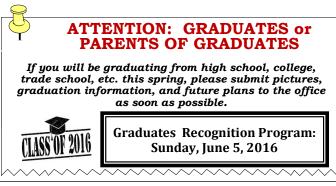

A significant part of Jesus wearing the title "Christ" means he was tasked with completing a job. He is the Messiah with a mission! The purpose of Jesus coming to the world was to save sinners. In fact, Jesus explicitly stated this as his mission, "For the Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost" (Luke 19:10). Another way to express this is to say that the chief mission of Jesus Christ is atonement. Atonement may be defined as the work Christ did in his life and death to earn our salvation. Christ atones for sin by paying the penalty of sin in his sacrifice, removing God's wrath as our propitiation, overcoming our separation from God as through reconciliation, and freeing us from bondage to sin and Satan in redemption.

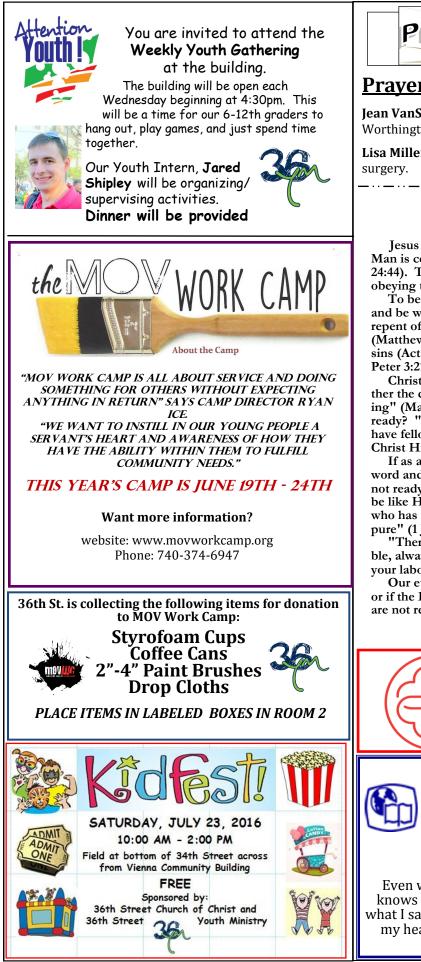

Not only was Jesus tasked with a mission but he was equipped to get the job done. This is another critical aspect to understanding what is meant by God's Anointed One. Whenever God anointed people for a special role He empowered them to accomplish the job. For example, David was anointed by Samuel and had success after success, both militarily and politically, because God's Spirit was upon him.

With Jesus it is a unique anointing. You see, Jesus himself was divine – the only human ever able to claim that and be truthful. The Old Testament predicted a coming Divine Messiah. In Jesus' own self testimony in words and deeds he validated his divine nature. Jesus was "in the very form of God" (Philippians 2:6) and "the exact imprint of [God's] nature" (Hebrews 1:3). Jesus is God! And because of his divine nature he is uniquely qualified to be the Messiah. Jesus Christ was chosen to save and he alone, as God in the flesh, is able to accomplish that mission.

Today I will... give thanks for Jesus coming to seek and save the lost. And because I am the foremost sinner I know I am so grateful for the mission of the Messiah to save me and atone for my sins at the cross.

Be Ready

By Ron Boatwright

Jesus says "Therefore you also be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect" (Matthew 24:44). To be ready we must have "purified your souls in obeying the truth" (1 Peter 1:22).

To be saved from our past sins we must believe in Jesus and be willing to do all He says in His word (John 8:24), repent of our sins (Luke 13:3), confess Him before men (Matthew 10:32), and be baptized for the forgiveness of our sins (Acts 2:38, 22:16), so we can be saved (Mark 16:16, 1 Peter 3:21). If you haven't done this, you are not ready.

Christians have to "Watch therefore for you know neither the day nor the hour in which the Son of Man is coming" (Matthew 25:13). How do we continue to be ready? "But if we walk in the light as He is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanses us from all sin" (1 John 1:7).

If as a Christian we are not walking in the light of His word and having fellowship one with another, then we are not ready. But if we are ready when Jesus comes, "we shall be like Him, for we shall see Him as He is. And everyone who has this hope in Him purifies himself, just as He is pure" (1 John 3:2-3).

"Therefore, my beloved brethern, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing your labor is not in vain in the Lord" (1 Corinthians 15:58).

Our eternal fate is sealed when we draw our last breath or if the Lord comes before we die. It will be too late if we are not ready. Are we ready?
