A Thought From Mark...

THE FREROT NEWSLETTER

MAY 25, 2017

TRANSLATED BY DONALD R. TAYLOR

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

In the introduction of my preceding newsletter, I mentioned the extreme cold weather we experience during the winter, but this cold weather returned in force during April, killing flowers and some other shrubbery in our small yard. Nevertheless, the work of the Lord here has continued, perhaps slowly, but surely, and the good things I mentioned in my last letter have continued. Each day, Suzanne and I are busy from morning to evening, hardly ever able to complete all we had intended to do. We are fully aware of our many responsibilities in the congregation.

There are happy moments. Yesterday, for example, ten of our teens were present, demonstrating their lively interest in the study of the Scriptures. This interest is also shared by the adults who attend the Wednesday evening Bible study meeting, who come with their questions.

Jonah, whom I have mentioned before, has a great interest in deeper studies, is present at every occasion and accepts public responsibilities in the worship assemblies. I am engaged with him in regular studies, which also involve tests. At the present time, I am studying with Jonah the book I wrote on the history of the Bible and the manuscripts. We are using, in this study, the twenty lessons (on films) which I developed at Sunset (in Lubbock). We are also studying material on great men throughout history who have defended the faith, including for example, Justin Martyr and other so-called "church fathers" of the early centuries. I am showing how these men separated truth from error. I am including also in this study more recent reformers, and leaders in the Restoration Movement. But these studies do not occupy most of my time.

We also share the joys and, often, the sadnesses of each member of the church. Our sister Paulette, baptized on December 18, last year, lost her husband in April, following a blood clot in the lungs. He was an invalid, bound to his wheelchair. A former parachutist in the military, and he was buried with full military honors by his former comrades in arms. We were involved in the proceeding, which allowed us to make contact with his entire family.

Toward the end of April, on the Sunday following our anniversary (of marriage) we received an outpouring of affection from the entire congregation. The Christians from Luxembourg were also present and following the morning worship, we enjoyed lunch at a Chinese restaurant in our city. Also, among the happy things we experienced, we learned that one of our sisters in Christ, a refugee from Iran in 2016, has received official status in Belgium. Many prayers had been offered to God for this.

The task of evangelizing remains the most difficult part of what we do. In France, for example, according to statistics, 70 % of the population are atheists and only 4 % say they churchgoers. Most of these only go to some church one Sunday out of four. We have worked a great deal with Africa, where our message and efforts have born much fruit. French-speaking Africa counts today some 72 full time evangelists.

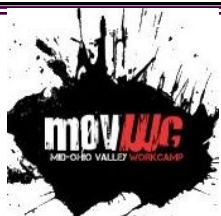

In Verviers, students from Freed-Hardeman University come for two semesters each year. Every five years, the church building is inspected by city officials. I am the contact person and am responsible for making contacts with city officials who insure that the building is kept up to code.

Two of our grand-children, Jesse and Stephanie, graduated from FHU. This was a subject of joy and pride for our family.

Finally, it is also time for me to endure some tests at the hospital, including a pet-scan. You may remember that I contracted lymphoma, some ten years ago now.

We thank you for your love, your support, and we pray that the Lord will bless each one of you.

Jean-Marie and Suzanne Frerot

Motivated to Share

Each Christian is a unique individual with a unique, God given personality. Each of us needs to share the gospel, but each of us will be motivated in different ways. Some may need a better understanding of God and His love for us. Some simply need to decide to start sharing. Others may need to look closely at their fears and see what they are really afraid of. Some may need to practice their ability to communicate, while others may just need a goal and a plan to achieve that goal.

Whatever you need to get started, your attitude toward soul winning will determine your success. If you love God, you will be motivated to serve Him. If you love Jesus, you will have a compassion for lost souls like He did (and still does).

If your attitude is that you want to win souls for Christ because you want your church to be the biggest one in the county, or because you want to add to your personal statistics, you will probably not be very effective. The most effective motives for soul winning are not selfish. The most effective soul winners are selfless. They are effective because they are willing to be patient, to do whatever it takes to help people get to know God and His Son.

Let us have an attitude, individually and as a congregation, that causes us to seek and save the lost.

"Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you."

Matthew 28:19,20a
