But if I say, "I will not remember Him
Or speak anymore in His name,"
Then in my heart it becomes like a burning fire
Shut up in my bones;
And I am weary of holding it in,
And I cannot endure it."
Jeremiah 20:9

Jeremiah the prophet had a task: take the Word of God to the people of Judah. They had disobeyed God and his job was to tell them of the consequences of their actions. Not an easy assignment in the slightest. But these were God's people. They ought to be open to hearing

This Sunday's topic is
"The Eternal Word"

"Although the apostles preached the gospel for the first time two thousand years ago, the gospel is still able to do what God intended. This gospel is eternal, true, and powerful! This faith was once for all delivered to the saints."

TUNE IN AT 7:30 AM - WTAP TV

Tune in next Sunday morning to see how Phil Sanders addresses this subject. The program airs at 7:30 AM on WTAP TV.

what their Lord had to say to them, right?

It was not that simple. Jeremiah was met by hardened hearts and ignorance. He was aggrieved at God that He had given him such an impossible task. "You tricked me!" he accused in the verses above this one, "Everyone is mocking me now." And yet Jeremiah could not disbelieve the things God had shown him. He could not turn aside from the things God wanted for him to say. He couldn't lie to his people or even keep silent.

What does it feel like for us when we consider the message that God has given to each one of us? What do we feel when we ponder the indwelling of the Spirit, the salvation from the Christ and the creation of the Father? I hope we can feel the same intensity of desire to share that message.
