The freedom we enjoy as Christians is not lone wolf freedom, or the freedom of the band of misfits. The freedom of Christ looks very different to our stories of heroes who can fend for themselves.

Indeed, the slavery of sin under which we once labored made it the duty of each one to handle his own circumstances but now that we are freed, we have been adopted by the one we once sinned against!

We no longer have an uphill battle against all odds but the safety of a home into which we have been adopted and promised protection. What a blessing to be in God's family! Ethan Kirl

Mark 9:50

This Sunday's topic is
"Is God Active Today?"

*"Some think God is absent in our world today; others say God is dead. The Bible teaches God is indeed alive and active in the world today and is working for our good.
We can be thankful to have a God who cares for us."*
