Beloved, you are acting faithfully in whatever you accomplish for the brethren, and especially when they are strangers; and they have testified to your love before the church. You will do well to send them on their way in a manner worthy of God. 3 John 1:5-6

We often talk about Hebrews 13:2 when we talk about hospitality because we like the idea of having an angel over for dinner and the Lord being impressed with our hospitality.

There is a much more tangible and I would say more likely scenario: we could be dealing with a fellow believer. The Church John wrote to in his third epistle we have was hospitable to people even when they didn't know them. They weren't concerned with a letter of recommendation or a reputation before they reached out to show love.

Instead, John praised them saying that their hospitality was worthy of God! What a great reputation to have. Imagine if we were well-known for extending kindness. I hope we can be, individually as well as as a congregation.

This Sunday's topic is
"Jesus the Son of God"

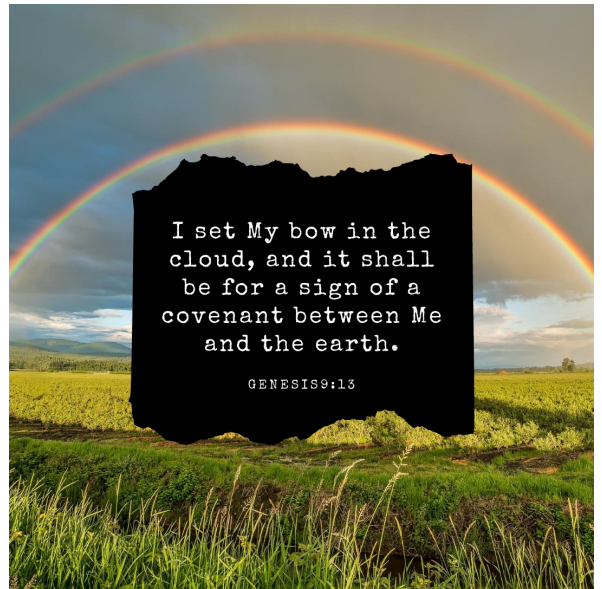

"This is the first in a series of lessons describing Jesus Christ. This lesson points to Jesus as the Son of God and what that means. We want to know the Lord Jesus Christ. Nothing else is so important."
