“May All Grace Abound”

Can you believe that we're already halfway through March this week? There's so much going on in the world around us that it makes it seem like there is a lot of negativity and not a lot of blessings to balance it out. However, there is a lot going around just in our congregation alone that we have to be excited about and thankful for that God has blessed us to be in the position we are right now.

Just in case you haven't already heard, we are 25 and 1/2 months away from celebrating our 100th anniversary of the first worship service we had all the way back in 1924! Naturally, there's going to be a big celebration coming up sooner than we think. As we get closer to the celebration, we have a congregation full of stories, pictures, and other previous members with stories and pictures that we need your help in gathering them up to compile into a book that has the best that this congregation has to offer over the past 100 years to enjoy for generations to come!

We also have things to be excited about right now as well! Just last month we kicked off our Widows Walk ministry where we seek to fill a huge need in the brotherhood by giving an opportunity for those who have lost a spouse to come together and be a part of the family in a unique way. This is also an area where everyone can be a part of a rapidly growing ministry because we all know someone who has lost a spouse who could use this unique uplifting and encouragement.

Needless to say, God has blessed us with a lot of tools that we can and should be using as methods of outreach to our community and abroad. The world may seek to point out how bad things are and it is easy to be swept up in that, but what if the community sees our light amongst the darkness? Think of how much good we can do and how powerful of a outreach we can be, when we use our unique sets of passions to be powerful outreach to our community and beyond! With that I want to challenge you as you go about this week and the weeks to follow to ask yourself, how can I use my God given talents and abilities and use them to be a blessing to others?
