If There Will Be Peace and Security in My Days

by Doug Kashorek

Most parents would sacrifice or do anything for their kids. With my dad and two growing boys in the house, I know now that that's what my mother did when after dinner she'd say she didn't want dessert. And when my daughters became old enough to date, my dad wanted me to warn any potential suitors that their grandpa was "a crazy Vietnam vet."

But, how about generations beyond those you can hold? It's short-sighted and unloving to know that something you could do or not do now would affect descendants you'd never know decades into the future ... and you just shrug and mutter, "It won't hurt me."

That's where Hezekiah was towards the end of his life. Now, he had a great beginning when he trusted in God for the salvation of Jerusalem after the Assyrians had already carried the Northern Kingdom off into captivity. Of him, 2 Kings 18 says, "And he did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that David his father had done." Hezekiah wept and prayed when he heard he was going to die, and God granted him fifteen more years of life.

We don't quite know how he used that time, but it wasn't for the good of God's kingdom. Foolishly showing envoys all the temple and city's treasures, he was told that everything would be carted off to Babylon ... in the distant future. Hezekiah's response? "The word of the LORD that you have spoken is good," and "Why not, if there will be peace and security in my days?" And it wasn't in parenting as his twelve year-old successor would bring much abomination to God's people in his evil 55-year reign.

But is that what we're about today? In a time when churches are 75% Boomers and less than 8% of Gen-Zs attend anywhere, are we shrugging and consoling ourselves with the thought that at least the Lord's church won't die in our lifetime? What could we do or not be doing to ensure that future generations will still obey and live out the gospel?

Janet Wagner has moved back to Vienna and wishes to place her membership at 36th Street.

Welcome Janet!

We began our 100th year in May, as we held our dedication service in May 1924. So, let's dedicate ourselves to prayer during the coming year: on ...

Sundays—pray for the assembling church & its future

Mondays—worship our Master who makes all possible

Tuesdays—lift up all teachers of His Word

Wednesdays—wisdom & work of our leaders

Thursdays—help for our youth & growth

Fridays—our fervor & influence for the gospel

Saturdays—lift up our ministries & tools that serve

WTAP – Sunday mornings at 7:30 AM

Birthday and Anniversary

8/15—Robert Haney birthday
8/16—Rick Kellar birthday
8/17—Eric Pride birthday

Congratulations!!

Today, during services, we will be honoring Abigail Shields, who graduated at the beginning of August from WVU-P.

FYI

Based on a recommendation during the church security meeting, the communion and contribution table has been moved to the back wall inside the auditorium.

Thank you!

36th Street Church,
Thank you very much for the opportunity to participate in your summer series this year! It was a pleasure to be able to share a lesson with the congregation at 36th street. We felt welcomed by everyone!

Elvis Galbreath

Thank you everyone for the birthday cards.

Mike Hale

I appreciate all the birthday cards!

Mark Butterfield

Thank you sincerely for sharing our sorrow. Your kindness is deeply appreciated and will always be remembered.

Family of Fred Nulter

Would you like to send a card?

You may place cards in the basket by the Deacon's desk & we will mail them out.

Summer Series

Wednesday, August 16

“What’s the News...on Calvary?”

Speaker—Terry Jones

The Centennial committee is still looking for those that have had multiple generations of family attending here throughout the years, to draw up their family tree. We have placed large sheets of paper on the foyer table to help with this. Please turn in by end of August.

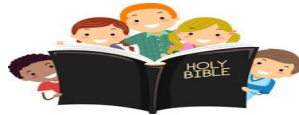

Service Station

We are going to focus on helping collect items for the back-to-school box for a little while. Please pick up plain colored backpacks and school supplies and place in white box in foyer.

Kids' Corner

According to 2 Samuel 2:3-4, in which city was David made king over Judah?

- A. Jerusalem
- B. Bethlehem
- C. Hebron
- D. Jabesh-Gilead

Tell the correct answer to Robert Haney for a prize (and wish him a happy birthday tomorrow!)

Hey moms, dads, grandparents and KIDS! There is a new activity packet for school-age or younger children in the foyer on the first Sunday of every month.
